Cap'n Bud's Boatmen Start Ticket Sale

Thirty-Five Cents Set As Price; Galaxy of Talent Promised

Tickets for "Cap'n Bud's Row Boat," which are, according to those in charge, definitely limited in number, are on sale in the hall this week.

Price of admission to this, the rally committee's Minstrel Show, will be thirty-five cents. With the performers in full costume, it will be a collegiate replica of the early American river shows.

Bud Decker, as Cap'n Bud, will be interlocutor and will be assisted by Vernon Rees, Ed Cockrum, Monk Delma, Howard Demeke and Tom Thorpe, acting as "end men."

Appearing on the program will be Helen Cox, winner of the Amateur Hour and featured singer on State's radio program, "Varsity Varieties."

Among the performances scheduled are songs by the Jail-bird Quartet, a toe-tap dance by Nedezda Lawrence, a banjo solo by Jack Martin, vocal solos by Connie James, Ida Beth Caine, Lorraine Sullivan and Bill Preston, a two-piano duet by Clarice Dechant and Olga Johnson, a vibra-phone solo by Lee Scarlett and a number on the xylophone by Dawn Wilson. Tom Thorpe and Harold Jacobs are among others who are to be featured in the show.

A.M.S. Tag Day Ends Tonight At Sport Dance

Tickets for the second annual Tag Day, which is being sponsored by the A. M. S., are now on sale, and can be bought from any A. M. S. representative. Among those selling tickets are George Mirande, Ed Smith, and Bill Ferem.

This sale will end today at 4:00, and will culminate in a dance to be held in the Women's Gym, from 9 to 12. The price of admission will be your tag plus 10 cents.

The A. M. S. hopes to sell at least a thousand tags, and the profits from this affair will go into a fund for the upkeep of athletic expenses at Roberts Field.

"The Student Body as a whole should get behind this drive and make it a success, and whether or not they plan to attend the dance should not be a deciding factor as to the purchase of a tag, because of the fact that the cause is one which is worthy of whole-hearted support, under any circumstances," stated Bill Ferem, chairman of Tag Day, when asked concerning this event.

Two-Week Summer Course in Camp Life Given At Big Basin

Pioneering in an entirely new field of educational endeavor, San Francisco State College will initiate a two-week course in Recreational Camp Activities at an out-door site in Big Basin, California Redwood Park, during the coming summer season, according to an announcement made by Dan S. Farmer, who is to head the camp.

President Alexander C. Roberts received official approval of the move at Sacramento yesterday morning. Plans for what has been termed as "something" in the way of a summer course have already neared completion.

According to Director Farmer, two units of college credit will be given for a course which will be compiled from the following subjects: Organization and Administration of Recreational Camps, First Aid, Archery, Leathercraft, Swimming, Nature Study, Campfire Programs, Community Singing, Recreational Games, Overnight Hikes, and Astronomy for the Layman.

Total cost for the June 2 to June 16 stay includes a course fee of $5.00 plus $14.00 for board and rent of a cot. Students will live out of doors and sleep on mattressed cot, supplying their own blankets.

The course is open to both men and women and the number will be limited to fifty State students this year. For this reason all those who are interested are requested to get in touch with Mr. Farmer immediately.

The activity is the only one of its kind west of Chicago. In relation to this, Mr. Farmer stated, "The course is a great boon to recreational leaders as the training is designed to qualify one to direct a summer camp, a field which is lacking trained men and women."

"Dulcy" Cast Changes Announced

Three major changes in the cast have been announced by Miss Jessie Casebolt for the coming play Dulcy. Clem Zaninni has been given the part of Mr. Forbes, George Mirande as Mr. Patterson and Walter Bartmare as Van Dyke.

Dulcy will be given on Friday, May 7 in Little Theater, Annex B2. Price of tickets will be thirty-five cents and all seats will be reserved. Regarding Little Theater Miss Casebolt had the following to say: "Up until now visibility has been an unsatisfied requisite but with a few rearrangements this difficulty will now be obliterated."

Will Smith Gives Intention To Run for S. B. Presidency

Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of articles dealing with the various candidates for office. It is entirely unofficial and is in no way to be construed that the candidates are receiving the support of the Golden Gater.

By LOUISE VALLARINO

When Will Smith announced his candidacy for presidencing of the student body it was one step more in a long and varied career in student activities at the college.

Starting as News Editor of the Golden Gater, where he gained a wide background in college affairs, he soon became Editor of the paper. It was under his leadership that the first steps were taken toward giving the college a daily.

From this start in Publications Will Smith became prominent in college affairs. He was elected to the Board of Publications, became chairman of the Co-op Committee, became publicity chairman for the President's Day activities and at present is an important member of the Building Campaign Committee.

He is a member of many campus clubs, among these being the Sphinx Club, Brush and Pallette, Alpha Phi Gamma, and the Newman Club.

In announcing his candidacy, Will Smith declared: "There is only one promise that should be made by any candidate for office and that is to give the college the most progressive administration possible. I know that my record of the past three years will give me a real background in this aim.

"We are approaching the time when State will be one of the finest of metropolitan colleges. We must plan and plan wisely for that day. A progressive administration now will mean years in the growth of the college."

Appropriations Bill Receives Set-Back

Prospects for a quick decision on the part of the Legislators about the current appropriation bill allotting over two millions of dollars to the college for new campus buildings, seemed doomed to further postponement, according to a statement from Ed Cockrum, student body president.

The issue was described as an unforseen one which has come up over relief money provided for in the Governor's Budget. Some of the capital outlay for state institutions is dependent on the eight odd millions involved in this budget item alone. The debate is on the relative merits of retaining or releasing this amount for purposes other than relief.

Cockrum expressed the belief that final success would attend the bill but that delays were to be expected, especially in view of the fact that the present political situation was tense.

Tag Sale Continues, Drive Culminates Tonite in Gym

There's no use trying to evade the issue, shipmates, because it looks as though you simply can't get along without buying one of those tags being sold everywhere by muscular salesmen segregated throughout the campus. The best recipe for staying healthy these days is to cough up your 15 cents meekly, bow your head in silent acknowledgment, and say a servile "thank you" upon receipt of the magic little piece of paper that ends your troubles temporarily.

There is nothing that pleases the sadistically inclined salesmen more than an occasional bit of sales resistance on the part of a prospect foolish enough to admit he does not have a tag. It is generally safe to assume he will have one before the tete-a-tete is over. But our local promoters really have something when they mention the dance to take place in the gym tonight. It's Joe Rosen's orchestra promising lots of smooth sailing!

Alpha Phi Pledges Undergo Ordeals

"Hell Day" for prospective members of Alpha Phi Gamma will be held on the campus on Friday, April 23. Neophytes to pledged include: Louise Vallarino, Jim Martin, Roy Lauguesen and Lou Morris. Pledge captain Robert Chamberlin will be in charge of the festivities. "Pledges will be easily distinguished," accordng to Chamberlin, "as they will be garbed in the traditional regalia of shirts, key, and paper caps."

Following the day's activities on the campus, the pledge ceremonial will be held at the home of Ciwa Griffiths, 44 Majestic Avenue, at 8 p.m.

A brief business meeting will follow the pledging at which time Will Smith will give a report on the financial results of the Intercollegiate World's Fair.

Phi Lambda Chi Holds Annual Spring Dance

Phi Lambda Chi wishes to announce its annual spring dance to be held at The Residence Club, 940 Powell St., April 24, from 9 to 12. The affair is to be semi-formal and bids may be obtained from any of the members for $1.10 per couple. The committee in charge headed by Edith White, consists of Dawn Wilson, Kay Bailey, Betty Lindstrom, Shirley Dickeson, and Marguerite Bellis.

Intercollegiate Fair Pronounced Success

Runners Carry Torch Thru City, Field Beacon Fire Ignited, Students Congratulated

Alpha Phi Gamma's Intercollegiate World's Fair, postponed one week because of rain, was staged at Roberts Field last Monday. Committee heads pronounced the affair a financial success even though final check up had not been made.

Will Smith, chairman and master of ceremonies for the evening, had the following statement to make concerning the Fair: "Barring bad weather and a few minor disappointments on drill teams and so on, A. P. G. members felt that the affair was satisfactory. There is little doubt that rain on the preceding Monday when the event was originally scheduled and which caused postponement, had a depressing effect on gate receipts. On behalf of the fraternity I want to thank personally all those individuals and clubs whose generous contributions of ideas and work made the World's Fair the enjoyable thing it was."

Last Monday, as scheduled, the final runner carrying a red torch entered the east gate, ran across the field and ignited the beacon fire on the elevation at the west end. Runners were, Dick Davis, Mark Davis, Jim Hopkins, Relfe Leavitt, Walburto Valadez, Fred Kline, Mike Driscoll, and Biff Shreeve. Each man covered a part of the distance beginning at the Golden Gate International Exposition Building, moving down Grant Avenue to Market, up Market to Valencia and from thence to Roberts Field. Dick Davis, who headed the group pronounced himself well pleased with the time made through heavy traffic. Jim Hopkins was chosen honorary captain.

State Radio Program Off Air For This Year

Due to the pressure of large commercial programs lined up for the summer season, State's Varsity Varieties radio program which had two half hour periods on successive Fridays last month, will be forced to wait until later for a spot on the air.

The above information came as the result of an interview with Reiland Quinn, program director of Station KYA. According to Quinn, program time for the next few months is crowded and the revenue paying ones must necessarily be given the right of way.

FLASH!

All petitions that have been taken out for student body offices MUST be turned in by Monday, 3 p.m., announced President Cockrum today.

This Collegiate World

Toronto, Ont.—(ACP)—Somewhere on the University of Toronto's campus walks a coed with a "perfect figure." She is the woman for whom Dr. Edith Gordon, university medical adviser, has been looking for 15 years.

No one on the campus but Dr. Gordon knows who "Miss Venus" is, and she refuses to divulge her secret.

"I have been examining students for 15 years and each year I live in hopes of meeting the perfect woman," she informed the physical education section of the Ontario Educational Association. "This year I met her. Sometimes their backs are too long or too short, sometimes they have too long a neck or too short a neck, sometimes their thighs are too long or short. It is most interesting, this study of symmetry and proportion.

"And when you find a perfect one, it is as great a thrill as when you find a beautiful piece of statuary—only more so because it is living."

Track Squad Tangles With Marin Jaysee

Gaters Are Favored To Down Rivals, Hopkins On The Spot

Riding on the crest of a hair-raising victory over Modesto J. C. of last week, the Golden Tide will roll against the tracksters of Marin J. C. at Kentfield this Saturday in an attempt to continue the string of victories and keep the season's record spotless.

Coach Dave Cox' short-panted tutilages are red-hot favorites to cop the dual meet, but the prediction fails to bring any reaction among the Gaters who still have memories of last week. However, yours truly believes the battle will end at 80 to 42 with the Staters in front.

Feature battles of the day will be in the sprints, hurdles, pole vault, high jump, and 880-yard run. The Gaters should take a clean sweep in the javelin and discus throw, with a possible 9 points in the mile run and shot put.

In the sprints, the State trio of Errol Evans, Daryl Hopkins, and Jim Hopkins will find it tough going against Bill Russel and Bill Elstrum whose records are almost identical. However, Frank Collins and Ronnie Lindlow should have little trouble in the 440 gallop.

D. Hopkins is favored to take both the hurdle races as the opposition is not of the best. Fans will probably see Errol Evans, the diminutive dark flash with plenty of stamina in his frame, for the first time as a point-getter in the timber-topping events.

The pole-vault results are something that are certain to create interest. The Gater squad suffered a terrific loss when Bill Harkness was forced to stop vaulting because of an injured back. It looked as if there was no one to replace him until last week when Cox unearthed Doug Crary who scaled 11 feet for a tie for first place. Crary will duel Bud Grabe for top honors.

If past performances mean anything, the 880-yard run should be in the feature role. Stan Kuder, a two-year veteran who is still not up to form, and Bob Cota, who has promise of being the number one miler, will tangle spikes with Jim Wainwright and Bud Smith of the opposition.

Comparison of the times of the four performers shows that a scant margin of .2 of a second separate the quartet. The mile run should find Fred Kline, a freshman and good-looking prospect, out there battling for a place in the first three.

However, the rest of the events should be so much sand for the Golden Tide, unless the Marins pull a Modesto on the Gaters.

RESULTS OF WEEK

Abbey-Wood Star As Gaters Win, 8-3

Jones Turns In Great Game On Mound; Bowers Gets Three For Five

Spotting their opponents three runs, the Gater baseball team proceeded to overcome the disadvantage and win out 8-3 over a good Marin Junior College nine Tuesday afternoon at Roberts Field.

After three scoreless innings, Marin touched Pitcher Owen Jones for three hits and as many runs, but State came right back with one in the fourth on hits by Osborne and Bowers and two walks, and then the Gaters forged into the lead with a trio of tallies in the fifth.

Turner opened this frame with a walk, Abbey singled and Wood doubled to score two, Bowers brought Wood in with his second hit. The Bowers-Wood duo scored again for State in the seventh. The Jaysee pitcher got wild in the eighth, walking three and allowing a double by Wilkes to run the final tally to 8-3.

Owen Jones pitched brilliantly before and after the fourth. He struck out twelve and allowed but eight scattered hits. Pat Bowers led the Gater attack with three hits in five attempts. Bill Abbey hit safely in his twelfth consecutive game by garnering two for four. Hal Wood also banged out two bingles, including a double that cleared the right field wall, but bounced back onto the field.

Gaters in Last Bid For Tennis Victory

With Ronnie English and Joe Rosen playing in the last match of the intercollegiate career, the State racketeers will take on the Gael team this afternoon at the Palace of Fine Arts. This meet will mark also the last chance for State to knock itself out of the last position in the Northern California Intercollegiate Tennis Association, which they have been holding down since the formation of the league. The only chance they now hold for any glory this season is to topple one of the leaders this afternoon.

For English, this afternoon's match will mark the last of his career as a racket wielder here at State. The chances are doubtful that he will be defeated in this match, and he has a more than probable chance to retain his record of being undefeated in intercollegiate competition.

Intramural Teams Boosted

Even Schwarz Plays

By TIM GUINEY

With intra-mural baseball ready to go into the final rounds, it might not be amiss at this point to have a discussion of the pros and cons of the various teams participating in our little league skirmishes.

To attempt to name all the clubs would be futile. With such titles as Dingbats, Razzmatazz, Screwballs, Callums Clowns . . . phooey, it's got me already. According to present indications, one of the top teams is the Newman Club, winning two and losing none. The Golden Gaters, (I blush modestly), have won one and lost none, as has the Executive Board, The Gorillas, and the Block "S".

KILLERS GOOD

For myself, I would rather watch Piava's Killers in action than anyone else. The slugger's boys are always good for a show, and continually go through antics guaranteed to make the most cynical chortle with glee. Besides this, who do I find swinging a bat for the Killers but that mess of protoplasm, Maury Schwarz. The only way he can hang on to the pill is to put a Half-Nelson on it, until he breaks every bone the old apple ever had. He should be arrested for impersonating a ball player.

STONE SOFTIE

Neil Martin belied his statement of "not having played since he was ten," by collecting two bingles in three times up to the plate. Kenny Johnson, a fellow colleague and progressive Fourth Estater, swings a mean bat for the gashouse gang of Publications. Runar Stone, one-time recognized as the "Iron-man" of the campus, has turned softie and does most of the twirling for the Block "S".

Ball Team Meets Menlo Today, Athens Club Sat.

In an attempt to even the count in their two game series State's stars of the diamond will meet the Athens Club nine in the second and final game of the series at Oakland tomorrow afternoon.

Probable starting pitcher will be Owen Jones who did so well as a relief hurler against the Clubmen last weekend. With Joe Lee definitely out of the lineup for the rest of the season, Coach Hal Harden has switched Hal Wood to third base and Charlie Iago to the outfield.

If any relief chuckers are needed, Harden may send George Bogdanoff into the fray.

Today the Gater nine meets Menlo Junior College in a warmup; almost anyone is liable to start in this game, but the first string will probably be sent in to save the contest. The battle is slated for 3:30 at Roberts Field.

Gaters Triumph in Close Meet, 62-59

Relay Team Comes Through In Final Event to Cinch Meet, Crary Stars

The moment was tense, the thrills were running high, and two men were running their hearts out, Frank Collins of State and Howard Upton of Modesto . . . the score was 59½ for Modesto and 57½ for State . . . Frank and Howard round the last turn in the relay with Frank holding a bare lead of two yards . . . . and Frank finally the hero of the day, hitting the tape first a scant one foot in front of Upton. And that, my friends, is the story of how State defeated Modesto J. C. 62½ to 59½ Saturday at Kezar. Not to be outshown, was Daryl "Hoppy" Hopkins, who was around long enough to collect 17 markers for high point honors of the day.

COTA GETS HOT

Running a sterling race was Bob Cota in the mile, bucking a strong head wind that Kezar is noted for, Bob breasted the wire first in the very fast time, for the conditions, of 4:38.5. Fighting it out for second place were Stan Kuder and Hawkins, with Hawkins of Modesto just grazing the finish line one step ahead of Kuder.

This tall, lanky lad of 6' 8", Thornton of Modesto, who was supposed to give "Big Hoppy" Hopkins a bad time in both the high and low hurdles, was sadly outclassed by Daryl. "Hoppy" beat the big boy by six yards in both events. Although the times were slow in both events, Hopkins had no trouble whatsoever with his competition.

CRARY NEW STAR

Doug Crary, whose name is not familiar to these eyes in the realm of track and field, was wearing the Purple and Gold for the first time, and Doug came through like a veteran in tying for first in the pole vault with Terry of Modesto. Crary gives State a new threat in this event, and should be getting around 12½ feet by the end of the season.

Suits Issued Monday As Practice Starts

State's mentors, Dan Farmer and Hal Harden join the hue and cry for gridiron talent and also to post the following data in regards to spring practice: (1) Suits will be issued Monday, 11 to 1:30, (2) Tuesday from 12-1 and 4-6 and (3) Practice will start Wednesday at 4:00 sharp.

Practice will be every day except Monday from 4 to 6 p.m. and every man, even though he can't spell the word "football", is urged to come out.

Stone Chucks Victory Over Spartans, 5-4

Tieing Run Choked Off At Plate in Final Frame; Game Fraught With Thrills

By BILL ROSE

In the most thrilling game played yet this season by the Gater baseball team in which the lead shifted three times and the score tied an equal number of times, the Purple and Gold Staters of San Francisco defeated the Purple and Gold Staters of San Jose, 5 to 4, Wednesday at Roberts Field. By this victory the Hardenmen earned a draw with the Spartans in the two-game series.

There was only one inning in which the visitors didn't get men on base, but as soon as he pitched himself into a hole, Ru Stone, Gater hurler, proceeded to pitch himself right out again. Although Stone allowed thirteen hits, he kept them well scattered.

The shell-hole terrain of right field again aided the home team to win, when in the seventh inning the Gaters scored what proved to be the winning run. In this frame, with two out and Hal Wood on second, Pat Bowers lifted a long fly to Burt Watson in right, but Watson after catching the ball, stepped into a virtual trench and dropped the ball, allowing Wood to score.

The game was a battle of sacrifices, the home team dumping in three of its runs and the Prune Valley boys squeezing in one. Coach Gil Bishop started the affair by bunting in one in the second and then regretted it when Coach Harden played his game and sacrificed in a trio of tallies.

Pat "Rifle Arm" Bowers was the shining light of the victors. Bowers, besides getting a pair of bingles, scoring twice, and driving in one run, threw out Kenney Smith, Spartan outfielder, at third while he was stretching a double. Bowers would have picked Smith off in the second inning on the same play, but Wilkes cut off the throw.

Going into the first of the ninth the Gaters had a two-run lead, but they managed to lose half of that when San Jose bunched three hits, one a double. Art Carpenter singled, went to second on Main's hit, and made third while the Gaters got Main at second but missed Les Carpenter on an attempted double play.

With a man on first and third and two away, Watson belted out a double, scoring Art Carpenter. But here the Spartans made a mistake. Les Carpenter, attempting to score from first on the play, was thrown out by Hal Wood, relaying Dick Osborne's throw to Abbey. The play wasn't even close. Osborne's throw was powerful, Wood's accurate, and Abbey's block perfect.
